

Release Notes - Cloudbrink 13.3

New Features

	Feature	Description
1	Brink App Resiliency	The Brink App has improved resilience for various network conditions, ensuring seamless transitions and reliable connectivity.
2	Brink App login/logout experience	The Brink App now has a faster login/logout process for an enhanced user experience..
3	Mobile Brink App auto-login	Auto-Login timeout feature is now available on iOS and Android, configurable for specific Device-User-Groups.
4	Brink App upgrade history	Admins can now view the history of the last five Brink App upgrades per endpoint.
5	Reporting capability	Admin can get over email basic information about Cloudbrink service usage by their organization or for a specific user
6	Application services profile update	Updated Quality of Experience (QOE) profiles for built-in application services.
7	Windows 11 23H2 support	Brink App is qualified on Windows 11 23H2 OS
8	Mac OS 14.x support	Brink App is qualified on Mac OS 14.x
9	User IP Management config update	Admin can change the User IP Management setting for a Connector from the admin portal. The supported settings are Source NAT, DHCPv4, DHCPv4v6 and Static IP Pool
10	Brink App local IP clash resolution	Brink App can detect the IP address clash on local interface of the endpoint and take corrective actions to avoid the clash by assigning a different Brink IP automatically for edge connectivity.

Issues Resolved

	Item	Description
1	MSP CRUD Failure	Resvoled an issue where MSP admin unable to create/update/delete Agent Upgrade policies
2	Portal User Location	Active user not showing up on geo-map intermittently .
3	OS Name	Intermittent connectivity issue when WiFi network changes or app started immediately after Cloudbrink login

Support Information

We would love to hear from you! For any questions, concerns, or feedback regarding deploying the 13.3 release, please reach out at support@cloudbrink.com

Corporate Headquarters Cloudbrink, Inc.
530 Lakeside Drive, Suite 190, Sunnyvale, CA 94085

